WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 29.

The Proposed Va. "Constitution." [From the N. Y. Times, Radical.] One of the marked traits in the late Virginis Convention, which has at length laid its work for judgment before the people, was its utter rejection of the lesson taught it by the tate of its predecessors in other States. Profiting nothing by the history of the Alabama Con-stitution, which was lost, and of the Arkansas Constitution, which, if saved at all, was saved "as by fire," it audaciously went to greater lengths than either in fanaticism, partizanship and malignant intolerance. In a State where their adherents are probably in a minority,certainly have not a ballot to spare, - the furious Conventionists, led by Hunnicuttt and his allies, sacrificed everything to venomous hate, and risked their whole cause by steps such as even Alabama and Arkansas did not venture to take. The Hunnicutt extra-disfranchisement proposition, the Porter homestead exemption, the test-oath which General Scho-field officially denounced, were driven in and clinched to the Constitution after the votes in the other States should have rendered even bigots weary. Prominent Republicans now wash their hands of this matter. The Constitution is before the people for ratification or rejection; and should it meet the latter fate, no one would be surprised.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF A VALUABLE AND MOST ELIGIBLE FARM, IN CULPEPER COUNTY, WITHIN A FEW MILES OF BRANDY STATION AND CULPEPER C. II., VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a deed of trust, executed by John Taylor and wife to the undersigned, as Trustee, dated on February 11, 1861, and duly recorded in Culpeper County Court, being thereto required by the beneficiary, and with the consent of the parties interested, I shall proceed to sell, at public auction, on the premises, to the highest bidder, on WEDNESDAY, the 3rd day of June, 1868, if fair, or, if not, the next fair day thereafter, at the hour of 44 p. m., the property conveyed in said deed, being a certain TRACT OF LAND, in the county of Culpeper, Virginia, containing SEVEN HUNDRED ACRES, the same that was bought by John Taylor, esq., of Jeremiah Morton, esq., and the larger part of the very valuable farm known as "STILL-MORE," formerly owned by John Taylor, esq., and at present occupied by Messrs. John F. Lewis, M. Blackburn, James W. Crawford and Francis M. Young.

This very desirable estate lies in one of the most healthy and attractive regions of Virginia, within about six miles of Brandy Station, and about the same distance from Culpeper C. H., on the O. & A. R. R., and in a fine and de-lightful neighborhood. The land is highly adapted for agricultural or grazing purposes.—
The improvements consist of a COMMODIOUS DWELLING, with other build ings, all of them substantial and in good condition. It is rare that so eligible a farm is offered in market, and the attention of capitalists or parties desiring to settle in Virginia is called to this favorable opportunity for investment.
The debt secured by the deed is $8,000, with interest thereon from February 11, 1861, to the day of sale, and the deed requires the sale to be for cash sufficient to pay the same; but by an agreement between the parties, the sale will be only for cash sufficient to defray the expension. ses of sale and interest in arrear from the 11th day of February, 1861, to the day of sale, amounting to $2,326.66, and for the remainder of the debt, secured on a credit of one, two, three and four years, in equal instalments, the purchaser giving his negotiable notes, satisfactorily endorsed, with interest added, and secured by a trust deed upon the land; the residue will be upon terms which will be announced at the day of sale. The purchaser to pay taxes for 1868.
